To Colonel Forbes.—Dear Sir: The interest awakened in many circles by your personal narrative of the recent arrogale for Civil and Religious Freedom in Italy, as also by your addresses and publications on that subject, indices us to request from you the favor of a course of lectures upon these topics. Your thorough knowledge of the origin and progress of the late revolution in Italy, your acquaintance with the leading men of the Roman Republic, and with the condition of the people, will enable you to communicate to our citizens much valuable information respecting one of the most important movements of the time.

Yours, with respect.

L. BRADISH. WILLIAM JAY.

JAMES HARPER. ANSON G. PHELPS.

New-York, Feb. 7, 1881.

GENTLEMEN: I have great pleasure in learning that you take so lively an interest in the Italian movement. I shall most whilingly acquiesce in your request to deliver a course of fectures on that subject, and I have in consequence procured the Society Liversy Lecture Room for the 17th 19th, 18t and 24th of the month.

Since the early days of the ancient Roman Republic, all list and 26th of this month.

Since the early days of the ancient Roman Republic, all revolutions there have exercised a great influence over the rest of Europe. Haly is now again in a state of transition both pollifically and religiously—in '49 the echo was heard throughout the neighboring despoissms—but we are now on the eve of a nucle more serious and well-founded movement. Yours, very respectfully, H. FORBES.

At a meeting of this Committee, held at the Henry Clay House, on SATURDAY EVENING, Feb. 8, 1831, a Special Committee, appointed for that purpose, reported the following Presmale and Resolutions, which were adopted by the Ward Committee.

Whereas, We have recently heard with regret that the election of U. S. Senator failed to take place on the day designated and.

Process, We have recently heard with regret that the election of U.S. Senator failed to take place on the day designated; and.

Whereas, We desire at this time to make an expression of the regard we feel for Hon. Hamilton Fish, we recognize a long-tried and faithful public servant, who has filled every stailon to which be has been elected by the suffrages of his fellow-citizens, with honor, integrity and ability; and who, in the discharge of the duties of such stations, has earnessly endeavored to advance and promote the interests of all classes that he has been elected to represent.

Resolved, That from our knowledge of his private and public character, we feel every assurance, that if elected to the U.S. Senate, he would not only truly and satisfully represent the best interests of his own State, but would cheerfully and fearlessly sustain all such measures as wonth lead to the advancement and prosperity of the whole nation.

Resolved, That we sincerely and earnessly hope that Hon. Hamilton Fish, who has been so faithful and true to the interests of his constituents, will yet, and speedily, be the choice of every Whig member of our present Legislaure, and that our opponents shall not have the satisfaction of rejoicing over the defeat of so good and true a man.

Resolved, That we heartly approve of the course pursued by Hon. Clarkson Crolius, Senator, and Hon. J. J. Townserd, member of assembly from this District, in their evertions and votes relative to the election of Governor Fish to the United States Senate.

Resolved, That the foregoing Preamble and Resolutions be published in the New York Express and Tribune, signed by the Officers of this Committee.

A MERICAN HOUSE, Hanover-st.

A Boston.—The undersigned having entirely robult and enlarged the above extensive establishment, containing in all about 350 rooms, would respectfully give notice that it is now ready for the reception and accommodation of the traveling community.

An extended notice of the unsurpassed conveniences of this house is deemed superfluous, as the numerous improvements which have been made cannot be properly given in an advertisement. Suffice it to say that no expense has been spared to render any apartment perfect.

The furniture was made expressly to order, regardless of cost and certain portions of it, sepecially the drawingrooms, will be found to be of the most beautiful and tasteful manufacture. The dining-rooms are capacitous, and the hours for meals will be so arranged as to suit the convenience of the early and late.

Every department will be conducted in an unexceptionable manner, and the proprietor pledges hisself that the American House shall be truly the Traveler's Home.
